MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, JUNE 8, 1769.

By the Dolly and Betsey, Captain Craymer, arrived here in Seven Weeks from the Downs, we are favoured with the following fresh Intelligence.

PETERSBURGH, February 24.

THE Court has received Advice, that the Tartars, having attempted to invade the Province of this Empire in Two different Places, had been repulsed with Loss.

HAGUE, March 19. A Letter from Constantinople, from very good Hands, assures again, that the Divan would have listened to the Representations made by several of the Foreign Ministers for a Reconciliation with Russia, if they did not fear an Insurrection of the People, who all out loudly for beginning the Operations of War.

CASAL, March 2. It is reported that there has been fresh Engagement in Corsica, much more bloody than that of the 14th of last Month, and that the Malecontents had re-taken Barbaggio and Patrimonio from the French.

STOCKHOLM, March 14. The 9th of this Month the Royal Family were inoculated for the Small-Pox, upon the English Plan.

PARIS, March 24. It is certain, that a Treaty of Alliance, offensive and defensive, was signed a few Days ago by our Monarch, with the Queen of Hungary, the King of Spain, and the King of Prussia.

LONDON,

March 27. On Lieutenant Colonel Luttrell's publishing his Intentions of standing for the County of Middlesex at the ensuing Election, an Express was immediately dispatched to the Hon. Sir John Danvers, Bart. at his Seat in Leicestershire, to acquaint him that a great many Gentlemen of very considerable Property in the County of Middlesex, whose Party Principles seemed, 'til within these few Days, utterly irreconcilable, were now, by mutual Agreement, actually forming themselves into a select Coalition: that they requested his Assent to their putting him in Nomination for the County, as a Gentleman eminently qualified for so important a trust, and against whose public or private Character, neither Party could make any real Objection. The Return of the Express is hourly expected, when proper Measures, it is judged, will be taken by the select Coalition, to accommodate all the Freeholders in the Interest of Sir John Danvers, with Saddle Horses, &c. on the Day of Election.

We hear that most of the Gentlemen, Merchants, and Citizens of London, who waited on his Majesty with their Address on Wednesday last, who are Freeholders of the County of Middlesex, have promised to give their Votes for Col. Luttrell, on the Day of Election at Brentford.

It is reported that a Gentleman possessed of near a Thousand Pounds a-Year, was taken as a Rioter last Wednesday, and has been refused Bail, tho' many People of Credit and Fortune have offered to enter into Recognizance for his Appearance for very large Sums.

Friday died, at Hammersmith, the Right Hon. James Oswald, one of his Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council.

Extract of a Letter from Copenhagen, Feb. 15.

"Our amiable Sovereign, since his Return to his Dominions, has determined to increase the Fleet and Army of Denmark. Many Ships of the Line are equipping with the utmost Expedition, and very considerable Levies are making in every Part of the Danish Territories. The Fortifications of Cronenburg, near Elsinore, about 20 Miles from Copenhagen, will soon be rendered impregnable. Twelve Hundred Men are daily employed upon the Works of that important Fortress which commands the Pass of the Sound. A treble Battery, forming Three Lines of the largest Pieces of Brass Ordnance, is now erecting to the Sea Side; the lowest Battery consisting of Sixty Cannon, each carrying a Ball of 48 Pounds, commands a Fire just above the Level of the Water. The Men fire under Cover, the Embrazures being lined with Casemates on the Inside. It is said, these immense Batteries, with a certain Disposition of Ten Ships of the Line, will not only render the Pass of the Sound impracticable for any Fleet, but must, from the incessant Stream of firing upon a single Point, instantly sink any Man of War that may attempt it. We are told these great Military Preparations are occasioned by the French being determined to send a Fleet into the Baltic, with Twenty-four Battalions, to assist their Ally of Sweden, for the Establishment of arbitrary Government in that Country: A political Weed, which the Ministers of France love to cultivate and transplant, though neither the Soil nor Climate of the North is fit for it. Such an Exotic will require much forcing upon the Banks of the Baltic; and this Species of French Jardinage we trust will be nipt in the Bud by the Keenness of our Conduct and Climate. Military Government is natural to the martial Disposition of the Northern Nations; but arbitrary Government, contrary to Justice, Nature, and Humanity, we trust is confined to that Indolence, Supineness, and Servility, which are the spontaneous Growth of a Southern Climate."

They write from Warsaw, that a Division having arisen between Two Chiefs of the Confederates, who each commanded about Three Hundred Men, they attacked each other with so much Fury, that scarce Twelve Persons were left alive. Thus this little League was destroyed by its own Hands. Amsterdam Gazette.

Some Letters from Lisbon mention, that an Account has been received that the Portuguese Fortress of Mazagan in Africa had been taken by the Moors.

The Olive Branch, Tingley, from New-York, is arrived at Plymouth.

A very extraordinary Number of Sailors have this Season been employed by the Government, the East-India, the Baltic, Quebec and Newfoundland Fleets, besides the Particular single Ships; so that the Masters and Commanders of Vessels, not completely manned, find a great Difficulty and Expence in procuring Mariners, who are extremely reluctant in quitting their amorous Retreats about the Purlieus of Wapping.

About a Fortnight since, the Sum of 70,000 l. in Guineas newly coined, was sent from the Mint to the Bank. They continue coining of Gold; and in a few Days there will be (what is called) another Delivery of the like Sum. Silver Bullion is 4d Halfpenny per oz. too high a Price for the Government to afford to Coin at, to which the present Scarcity is owing.

March 28. Last Night Lord Temple arrived in Town, being sent for in order to assist in forming a new Ministry, in Conjunction with Lord Chatham.

March 29. We hear that on the 4th of next Month the Budget will be opened in the proper Place, which it is said, will disclose several curious Particulars for the Speculation of the political World, demonstrating the great Abilities of a certain Financier.

It is now confidently said that there will be no new Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland appointed, but that the present Viceroy will remain there Three Years longer.

It is said, that the M——y are greatly embarrassed by the spirited Behaviour of the Freeholders of Middlesex on a late Occasion, and cannot resolve what Measure to pursue, since their Views were frustrated by the Failure in the Attempt made by their doughty Tool on the 16th Instant.

The Gentleman who is now the Person fixed on by the M——y to oppose Mr. Wilkes on the Election of a Member for Middlesex, is a young Man of great Courage and Sense. The former of those excellent Qualities he fully proved himself possessed of, during the late War in Portugal: And every Day Evinces his having a superior Share of the other. His Friends are at a loss what to attribute his consent to the above Measure to; and regret much that he should undertake an Affair so generally disgustful to the People of this Country: And which, if he was to succeed, would only dim that Lustre of Character which his Merit alone has hitherto so justly preserved.

Those who seem to know most of Politics, are unanimous in thinking that the next Election for Middlesex will be the last for some Time; as the Ministry are now absolutely fixed to get some Candidate to oppose the Patriot; so that in Case he should be again returned, the other will have it at his Option to Petition, which will wrest the Cause from the Freeholders, and make it entirely an Object of P——y enquiry.

It is said that both Houses of Parliament will break up the First Week in May.

We hear that Addresses from all the different Shires in Scotland are preparing to be sent to his Majesty.

Notwithstanding the King of Prussia is so great a Prince, and his Territories are so extensive, we are told that the Government of Neufchatel, which is not esteemed worth above 800l. per Ann. is the most lucrative Employment under that Monarch's Gift.

It is reported that some News is expected to be brought, by the First Ship that arrives here from a certain Quarter, that will strangely effect the Affairs of a very great Body of People in this City.

The French have determined to send Fourteen more Battalions to conquer Corsica, which, when effected, it is said, is to be given the Spanish Court, in Lieu of several large Sums of Money, which the French owe to the Spaniards.

Great Discoveries have lately been made respecting the Bounty-Money granted on the Importation of American Tar, and the Frauds daily committed in that Branch of Trade, are now preparing to be laid before the Board of Trade.

Letters from Bastia in Corsica, dated Feb. 9, say, "A few Days ago Two English Noblemen, One of whom is Lord Stafford, embarked for their Native Country. The Troops of General Paoli have lately been reviewed, and Amount to upwards of 7000 disciplined Men, who are daily joined by great Numbers, full of Zeal for the Welfare of their Country.

March 31. We hear that on Wednesday the Earl of Chatham and Earl Temple had the Honour of a private Conference with his Majesty at St. James's, for near Two Hours.

We hear that a popular Patriot has expressed to several of his Friends, that he wishes no Gentleman whatever, will be a Candidate at an ensuing Election in in support of his Interest, as he is determined to stand, or fall alone.

We hear Captain Roach intends offering himself a Candidate for the County of Middlesex this ensuing Election, in Opposition to Colonel Luttrell.

Lieutenant Colonel Luttrell, now a Candidate for Middlesex, served early in the last War as a Volunteer in America; was an Ensign at the Siege of Louisburg, in 1758. In August 59, he raised a Troop of Light Dragoons, consisting of a 100 Men, in the Regiment now the Queen's. In 62, was Deputy Adjutant-General in Portugal, with the Rank of Lieutenat-Colonel in that Country, and Major here. It is said he had the Command of the Portuguese Infantry at Valencia d'Alcantara, when that Town was attack'd by General Burgoyne. He is now Lieutenant-Colonel in the first Regiment of Horse (in Ireland) which Commission he obtained his Majesty's Leave to purchase in January 1765.

We hear that the lately divorced Lady of a noble D—, who has been since married to a noble Lord, has had, on her Divorcement, her whole Fortune returned to her, which, as she was an only Daughter, amounted to above 80,000 l.

We are informed, that a certain N——n would have forfeited the Sum of 70,000 l. to a certain Lady, had he not married her upon a late particular Event taking Place.

Extract of a Letter from Florence, March 11.

"The King of Prussia has sent a Present of a Medal of his own Person to General Paoli, with an Elogium in which he makes that General greater than all the Heroes of Antiquity.

"When the Marquis de Marbœuf took Mr. Colonna Prisoner, with Two Hundred and Twelve Men, on the 14th of February, at Barbaggio, as a Compliment to that Officer, he said to him, that he supposed General Paoli would sustain a great Loss in him: To this the brave Corsican replied, that every Town, and every Village in his Country, contained Men of superior Courage and Abilities to himself; and that Mr. Marbœuf would very soon be convinced of it. This Loss will, however, be a great one to Paoli, who cannot afford to lose one Corsican to Ten Frenchmen; yet, if those brave Men are determined to remain on the Defensive, they will be invincible. At present they continue to strengthen the Fortifications of Bologna, as it is supposed that Spot will be the Theatre of the ensuing Campaign, and Cape Corso is already, except Oletta, entirely in the Hands of the Corsicans."

The French are already so suspicious of Designs against Alsace, Lorrain, and Bar, that all the old Regiments on the Barrier are marching towards the Rhine, and the Bishopricks of Metz, Doul, &c. are arming their Militia; the Duke de Deuxponts has encreased his Regiment to Three Battalions.

A late Letter from Paris mentions, that tho' there are many Candidates in Nomination for the Papal Chair, none bid so fair as Cardinal York; the principal Objection that has been made to him is his Youth, but the natural Gravity, and evenness of Temper, with which he has conducted himself in all political Disputes, have endeared him so much to the French Court, and others, that it is thought it will be no Barrier to his Exaltation.

Letters from Berlin say, that General de Lentulus being returned there, from his Government of Neufchatel and Vallengin in Switzerland, after confirming that People, by Authority from the King, in their former Rights and Franchises which had been disputed to them; and having acquainted his Majesty that all was now quiet in that Principality, and might have been so from the Beginning of the Commotions that reigned there, had the Sieur Michel, the Vice-Governor, acted with more Consistency and Moderation; the Want of which, besides causing Tumults and Dissatisfaction in the People, had involved his Majesty in a very expensive and needless Law-Suit with them. The King was very much disgusted with the Sieur Michel, who having soon after begged an Audience was flatly refused. The generous Behaviour of General de Lentulus in representing the People of Neufchatel and Vallengin as good loyal Subjects, and well affected to their Sovereign, to whom they had the Misfortune of being misrepresented, has reflected on him much Honour, of which he had already, but lately, acquired a large Share, by his mild and conciliating Deportment towards them, when he was in that Country. Hence it was hoped, that the King would see that People in their true Light; and be convinced, that though they would sooner part with their Lives than with their Liberty, yet in all Cases where that is not at Stake, they will never swerve from their true Allegiance.

The Populace at Edinburgh have lately burnt the Duke of H—, Lord Bute, and Mr. Wilkes, in Effigy.

April 1. Some People will have it that there is really an Intention of a Change of some Departments in the Ministry, but they cannot as yet fix on the proper Persons.

We are told that the next vacant blue Ribbon is intended for his Grace the Duke of Grafton.

Thursday Sir James Lowther, Bart. arrived in Town from Cockermouth, after being elected Member for that Borough, in the Room of Sir George Maccartney.

A Report is confidently circulated that a Gentleman very remarkable for his Attachment to the Cause, of a popular Prisoner, lately submitted to a personal Indignity from a Military Character, which has within these few Days become much the Object of public Conversation.

Upon casting up the Accounts of the election Expences of a certain Baronet, we are told that they amounted to 106,000l. 15s. 9d.—and this immense Sum spent without even answering the Intention for which it was lavished!

On Tuesday last was delivered to Mr. Wilkes, at the King's-Bench Prison, by a Captain of a Vessel, 45 Hams, 45 Tongues, and 45 Dozen of Ale, being a present from Stockton in Yorkshire.

The ſame Day was preſented to the above Gentleman, a large Sum of Money contained in a Box, being a Preſent out of the Country.

A Marriage is now talked of, as ſpeedily to take Place, between his Grace the Duke of Grafton and the Hon. Miſs Scudamore Fitzroy, a very handſome young Lady, and at preſent the greateſt Fortune in the Kingdom.

Wedneſday came on at Warwick, the Election of a Knight of the Shire for that County; when, we hear, Thomas Skipwith, Eſq; was elected without Oppoſition.

From Warſaw we learn, that the New Confederates of Lenczyce have been defeated near Kutno, by the Ruſſians, and that a great Number of their Recruits have been maſſacred by the Coſſacks. On the other Hand, Prince Sapieha has put himſelf at the Head of a Party of Confederates in Volhinia, and the Tartars have broke the Ruſſian Chain of Communication. Theſe Troops form a Body of 80,000 Men.—All the Places which the Tartars have viſited bear the ſtrongeſt Marks of the ſavage Temper of thoſe barbarous People; the Houſes have all been pillaged and burnt, and the unhappy Inhabitants either murdered or carried into Slavery.

Thurſday came on at the Eaſt-India Court, a Queſtion reſpecting the Juſtneſs and Propriety of 900,000l. Deductions which had been made from the annual Account 1768, in the private Committee of Accounts, without the Knowledge of the other Directors;—ſome alledged, that it had been done with a View of keeping down the Dividend; and others, that it had been done only with a View of preventing Government from ſqueezing the Company: But it was admitted by all, that it might in the End prove of the moſt dangerous Conſequence to the Company. The Queſtion was ſimply this, Whether the Company ought to take any Credit for their Fortifications, and other Military Expences, diſburſed on Account of the King's Ships and Troops in making the territorial Acquiſitions, or not? It was inſiſted the Company ſhould either take Credit for the Value of thoſe Acquiſitions, whatever they might be eſtimated at, or State at leaſt ſuch Charges laid out in acquiring them, as Government ought to pay in Caſe ſhe ſhould take the Acquiſitions from the Company. Arguments running hard againſt the Directors, they took an Opportunity of moving the Queſtion of Adjournment, when moſt of the principal Proprietors were gone to Dinner, which carried 106 to 85.

April 4. This Day the Hon. Houſe of Commons will meet, purſuant to their laſt Adjournment before Eaſter.

We hear from Paris, that the French Eaſt-India Company are now negociating for the Sale of their Charter and Trade with ſeveral Bankers, &c. among whom are named Foley, Panchand and Co.

The Forces kept up at preſent in the Electorate of Hanover, we are told, amount to near 30,000 Men, including Garriſons, but excluſive of a very large Body of Militia.

To the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of MIDDLESEX.

GENTLEMEN,

THE remarkable Series of important Events, in which you have been of late deeply intereſted, requires that I ſhould ſtate fully to you the Motives of my Conduct. No private Conſideration could induce me thus repeatedly to intreat the Freeholders of this reſpectable County to ſubmit to the Inconvenience of ſo frequent Elections. I am actuated by a higher Principle, by Duty to you, and to my native Country. My ſole Motive is, the Hope of eſtabliſhing, by Perſeverance, your Title to a free Election, which our Forefathers tranſmitted to us, as an hereditary Claim, and our Poſterity will demand from us, as the Guardians of their Birthright, of their beſt Inheritance. I find that after miniſterial Power has been without Succeſs exerted in every Form of Corruption, Diviſion, and Intimidation, to defeat your Rights, another Plan is at length adopted, and the vain Hope of our Enemies now is, that you will be tired out by the Conteſt, by the increaſing Expence to which you are compelled. You will however, I am ſure, continue to prove to the World, that you are ſuperior to this mean, wretched Attempt, unſeduced by Corruption, undivided by Artifice, and undaunted by every Apprehenſion of future Vengeance.

I cannot conceive any Thing of greater Importance to the Preſervation of public Liberty, than the Event of the preſent Struggle. The Queſtion is, whether the People have an inherent Right to be repreſented in Parliament by the Man of their free Choice, not diſqualified by the Law of the Land. This Queſtion is now again agitated in an enlightened Age, under a Prince of the Brunſwick Line, to whom the Exerciſe of this very Right gave the Sceptre, in Conſequence of the glorious Revolution. It is a right Coeval with our Conſtitution, and ſtands among the firſt Principles of our Form of Government, which reſerves to the People a Third Part of the legiſlative Power. It began at the very firſt faint Dawn of Liberty in our Iſland, and will ſurvive to the laſt convulſive Pang of expiring Freedom. It is a Part of the original Compact between the Sovereign of this Nation and the Subject, expreſsly ſtated in the BILL of RIGHTS, which declares that in this, as well as in the other Inſtances enumerated, our Anceſtors, as theirs in like Caſe had uſually done, VINDICATED and ASSERTED the true, ANTIENT and INDUBITABLE Rights and Liberties of the People of this Kingdom, which they CLAIMED, DEMANDED and INSISTED UPON, and the whole Legiſlature enacted, ſhall ſtand, remain, and be the Law of this Realm FOR EVER. Parliamentary Authority obliges every Sovereign, at the Coronation, to ſwear to the Obſervance of that, and all the other Statutes of this Realm, and this excellent Act declares, that all Officers and Miniſters whatſoever, ſhall ſerve their Majeſties, and their SUCCESSORS, according to the ſame IN ALL TIMES TO COME. This Right of the People is no leſs clear by Reaſon, than by the poſitive Statute. There can be no Repreſentation, but when the greater Number to be repreſented have freely choſen a Perſon who is legally qualified. A Repreſentation without, or againſt, the Conſent of the Parties, is an Inſult to common Senſe, an Abſurdity ſcarcely to be parallelled, an Injuſtice and Inſolence not to be forgiven.

In my Caſe, Gentlemen, the Legiſlative Power has in no Way interfered. A Reſolution of only one Third Part was obtained. The firſt Expulſion was chiefly grounded on the Pretence of what I had written, relative to the Maſſacre in theſe Fields, which I did from the Impreſſion that bloody Scene had made upon me. This I declared afterwards at the Bar of the Houſe of Commons, in purſuance of your Inſtructions. From thence the firſt Expulſion avowedly took its riſe. I made an Appeal to my Conſtituents. You approved my Conduct, and unanimouſly re-elected me. I was then expelled a ſecond Time, and no Reaſon whatever was aſſigned. The Day after this Re-election, a Reſolution was taken that I was and am incapable of being elected a Member, to ſerve in this preſent Parliament, and that the late Election of a Knight of the Shire for the County of Middleſex, is a void Election, but you, Gentlemen, determined for yourſelves, and would not ſurrender your Right of Choice. I ſtill proceeded, Gentlemen, to appeal again to you, and by your Favour, my third Re-election was as unanimous as the former. I was the next Day expelled, with a ſimilar Declaration, that no other Candidate was propoſed, and that no Elector gave or tendered his Vote for any other Perſon. In this laſt Inſtance both the Election and Return are declared null and void.

This Conteſt is now become of the moſt intereſting Nature. It is between the preſent Adminiſtration and all the Electors of Great-Britain. There is nothing perſonal in it. The Cauſe is national, and of the firſt Magnitude. On this Public Ground I will ſtand firm. No Danger ſhall deter me from my Duty, and while I continue to be entruſted by you in this important Concern, I ſhall rely on your Protection and Support. In me you ſhall find Obedience to your Inſtructions, Fidelity and indefatigable Zeal for the Maintenance of every Right of this free and brave Nation.

I am, Gentlemen,

With Affection and Regard,

Your obliged and faithful humble Servant,

King's-Bench Priſon, Thurſday MARCH 23, 1769. JOHN WILKES.

ANNAPOLIS, JUNE 8.

The General Aſſembly of this Province, which ſtood prorogued to Tueſday the 27th Day of June, was, on Friday laſt, by his Excellency the Governor in Council, further prorogued to Thurſday the 27th Day of July next.

On Monday Afternoon arrived here in good Health, in the Ship LORD BALTIMORE, Capt. MITCHEL, his Excellency ROBERT EDEN, Eſq; our Governor, with his Lady and Family; on the Ship's coming to an Anchor, off the City, ſhe fired Seven Guns, which were returned by an equal Number, but on his Excellency's coming on Shore, in the Evening, he was met by all the Members of the Council then in Town, and a great Number of other Gentlemen, under a Diſcharge of all the Cannon on the Battery.—And, on Tueſday Morning about 10 o'Clock, his Excellency went up to the Council-Houſe, attended by his Lordſhip's Honourable Council, where his Excellency's Commiſſion was opened and publiſhed, after which, he was pleaſed to iſſue the following Proclamation.

BY HIS EXCELLENCY

ROBERT EDEN, ESQUIRE,

I have, therefore, by and with the Advice of his Lordſhip's Council of State, thought fit to iſſue this my Proclamation, notifying the ſame to all Sheriffs, Magiſtrates, and others his Lordſhip's Officers in this Province; and I do further will and direct, that all Officers, both Civil and Military, execute and diſcharge the ſeveral Truſts and Duties, in them repoſed and enjoined by the preſent reſpective Commiſſions, to them granted, until ſuch Time as my further Pleaſure and Directions ſhall be ſignified therein. And I do hereby ſtrictly charge and require the ſeveral Sheriffs of this Province, to make this my Proclamation public in their Counties in the uſual Manner, as they will anſwer the contrary at their Peril.

GIVEN at the City of Annapolis, this 6th Day of June, in the 9th Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE the Third, of Great-Britain, &c. King; and in the 19th Year of his Lordſhip's Dominion, Anno Domini, 1769.
